

AL-NOOR CENTRE OF EDUCATION

Grand Test # 1 (For ECAT)

Roll No.

1. Injecting carbolic acid to the blood was tried, and quickly abandoned for it did more harm than good.
A B C D
2. To kill all the germs the doze would have had to be strong enough to kill the patient, too.
A B C D
3. He discovered the body's natural armour against disease-the leucocytes, or white cells of the blood.
A B C D
4. Carbolic acid and all the other known antiseptics did much damage to the lecocytes than to the germs.
A B C
D
5. Alexnder Fleming was born on a farm near Darvel, in Ayreshire, in August 6, 1881.
A B C D
6. He was the youngest of a family of eight.
A B C D
7. He proved that this was so, and that, if only germs were excluded from wounds inflammation was averted.
A B C D
8. It was thought at first that the eggs were a fault and fresh one were brought form other countries.
A B C D
9. It dawned on him suddenly that here was the 'rope' needed to reach the water in the well.
A B C D
10. There was indeed too much dust to be raised by a small jeep; but it was a rescue party none the less.
A B C D

Directions: In each of the following questions four alternative sentences are given. Choose the CORRECT one.

11. (a) After Arthur had returned to his book, Norma went back in the kitchen.
(b) After Arthur had returned to his book, Norma went back to the kitchen
(c) After Arthur had returned to his book, Norma went back into the kitchen
(d) After Arthur had returned to his book, Norma went back at the kitchen
12. (a) While she was stacking dishes, she turned abruptly, dried her hands, and took the package to the bottom cabinet.
(b) While she was stacking dishes, she turned abruptly, dried her hands, and took the package at the bottom cabinet.
(c) While she was stacking dishes, she turned abruptly, dried her hands, and took the package on the bottom cabinet.
(d) While she was stacking dishes, she turned abruptly, dried her hands, and took the package from the bottom cabinet.
13. (a) When he made up his mind to do a thing, he would do it if he had to crawl.
(b) When he made of his mind to do a thing, he would do it if he had to crawl.
(c) When he made with his mind to do a thing, he would do it if he had to crawl.
(d) When he made to his mind to do a thing, he would do it if he had to crawl.
14. (a) The pines in top of the mountain above us looked as if the fingers of their boughs were fondling the substance of a white cloud.
(b) The pines at top of the mountain above us looked as if the fingers of their boughs were fondling the substance of a white cloud.
(c) The pines on top of the mountain above us looked as if the fingers of their boughs were fondling the substance of a white cloud.
(d) The pines over top of the mountain above us looked as if the fingers of their boughs were fondling the substance of a white cloud.

15. (a) The man felt his hair flutter and the tissues of his body drew tight as if he were standing at the centre of a vacuum.
 (b) The man felt his hair flutter and the tissues of his body drew tight as if he were standing on the centre of a vacuum.
 (c) The man felt his hair flutter and the tissues of his body drew tight as if he were standing in the centre of a vacuum.
 (d) The man felt his hair flutter and the tissues of his body drew tight as if he were standing upon the centre of a vacuum.
16. (a) He felt himself submerged within a chemical that would dissolve his intellect and burn away his past.
 (b) He felt himself submerged with a chemical that would dissolve his intellect and burn away his past.
 (c) He felt himself submerged in a chemical that would dissolve his intellect and burn away his past.
 (d) He felt himself submerged into a chemical that would dissolve his intellect and burn away his past.
17. (a) Sam looked at him with quite good humour.
 (b) Sam looked on him with quite good humour
 (c) Sam looked over him with quite good humour
 (d) Sam looked upon him with quite good humour
18. (a) Mr. Bittering hesitated, and then raised the mirror on his face.
 (b) Mr. Bittering hesitated, and then raised the mirror at his face.
 (c) Mr. Bittering hesitated, and then raised the mirror to his face.
 (d) Mr. Bittering hesitated, and then raised the mirror in his face.
19. (a) Five years later a rocket fell out of the sky.
 (b) Five years later a rocket fell out on the sky.
 (c) Five years later a rocket fell out in the sky.
 (d) Five years later a rocket fell out at the sky.
20. (a) The strap broke of a sudden single tug that the boy gave it from behind.
 (b) The strap broke off a sudden single tug that the boy gave it from behind.
 (c) The strap broke at a sudden single tug that the boy gave it from behind.
 (d) The strap broke with a sudden single tug that the boy gave it from behind.

AL-NOOR CENTRE OF EDUCATION

Grand test # 2 (For ECAT)

Roll No.

1. At fourteen he went to London, and for the next two years he studied in the Regent Street Polytechnic.
 A B C D
2. By 1914 Lister's antiseptic method of surgery had largely replaced by what was called the aseptic method.
 A B C
 D
3. Each of the chemical antiseptics were more harmful to the leucocytes than to the germs.
 A B C D
4. Experiences were made with different chemicals, and one after another became fashionable and
 A B C
then give way to the next.
 D
5. The discovery of lysozyme did not bring Fleming popular fame, but it rises his position in the world of science.
 A B C
 D
6. "The very first stage in the discovery, "he says, "was due to stroke of good fortune."
 A B C D
7. Louis Paster, a French chemist, discovered that disease was caused by living organisms.
 A B C D

8. The object of his antiseptic method, as it was called. No error.
 A B C D
9. Injecting carbolic acid into the blood was tried, and quickly abandoned for it did more harm than good.
 A B C D
10. To kill all the germs the dose would have had to be strong enough to kill the patient too.
 A B C D
11. (a) But she bent down enough for permit to stoop and pick up her purse.
 (b) But she bent down enough on permit to stoop and pick up her purse.
 (c) But she bent down enough in permit to stoop and pick up her purse.
 (d) But she bent down enough to permit to stoop and pick up her purse.
12. (a) Mr. Hubert will you please accompany me to the Mayor's office, the Mayor would like to talk with you.
 (b) Mr. Hubert will you please accompany me to the Mayor's office, the Mayor would like to talk of you.
 (c) Mr. Hubert will you please accompany me to the Mayor's office, the Mayor would like to talk off you.
 (d) Mr. Hubert will you please accompany me to the Mayor's office, the Mayor would like to talk to you.
13. (a) You will not make me believe that Mr. Manana, who is a man of worthy credence, mistook the cord of a pocketbook.
 (b) You will not make me believe that Mr. Manana, who is a man of worthy credence, mistook the cord to a pocketbook.
 (c) You will not make me believe that Mr. Manana, who is a man of worthy credence, mistook the cord for a pocketbook.
 (d) You will not make me believe that Mr. Manana, who is a man of worthy credence, mistook the cord about a pocketbook.
14. (a) The next day on the afternoon a man named George returned the pocket book and its contents to Mr. James the owner of the pocketbook.
 (b) The next day in the afternoon a man named George returned the pocket book and its contents to Mr. James the owner of the pocketbook.
 (c) The next day at the afternoon a man named George returned the pocket book and its contents to Mr. James the owner of the pocketbook.
 (d) The next day of the afternoon a man named George returned the pocket book and its contents to Mr. James the owner of the pocketbook.

15. (a) When I arrived, I was met to the mother, a big startled looking woman, very clean and apologetic who merely said, "Is this the doctor?"
 (b) When I arrived, I was met with the mother, a big startled looking woman, very clean and apologetic who merely said, "Is this the doctor?"
 (c) When I arrived, I was met from the mother, a big startled looking woman, very clean and apologetic who merely said, "Is this the doctor?"
 (d) When I arrived, I was met by the mother, a big startled looking woman, very clean and apologetic who merely said, "Is this the doctor?"
16. (a) In fact she knocked my glasses flying and they fell, though unbroken several feet away from me in the kitchen floor.
 (b) In fact she knocked my glasses flying and they fell, though unbroken several feet away from me at the kitchen floor.
 (c) In fact she knocked my glasses flying and they fell, though unbroken several feet away from me on the kitchen floor.
 (d) In fact she knocked my glasses flying and they fell, though unbroken several feet away from me upon the kitchen floor.
17. (a) "For Heaven's sake," I broke of, "don't call me a nice man to her."
 (b) "For Heaven's sake," I broke into, "don't call me a nice man to her."
 (c) "For Heaven's sake," I broke out, "don't call me a nice man to her."
 (d) "For Heaven's sake," I broke in, "don't call me a nice man to her."
18. (a) He thought of the Gulistan as one of the bibles of the world, for he found in it the Universality of moral law.
 (b) He thought about the Gulistan as one of the bibles of the world, for he found in it the universality of moral law.
 (c) He thought on the Gulistan as one of the bibles of the world, for he found in it the universality of moral law.

- (d) He thought in the Gulistan as one of the bibles of the world, for he found in it the universality of moral law.
19. (a) Inside the cartoon was a push-button unit fastened with a small wooden box.
 (b) Inside the cartoon was a push-button unit fastened on a small wooden box.
 (c) Inside the cartoon was a push-button unit fastened at a small wooden box.
 (d) Inside the cartoon was a push-button unit fastened in a small wooden box.
20. (a) Norma put the button unit besides her up the couch.
 (b) Norma put the button unit beside her on the couch.
 (c) Norma put the button unit besides her in the couch.
 (d) Norma put the button unit beside her at the couch.
21. (a)

AL-NOOR CENTRE OF EDUCATION

Grand test # 3 (For ECAT)

Roll No.

1. Having settled on the culture plate, the mould begin to grow.
 A B C D
2. Further experiments showed that, in its affects on germs like staphylococci penicillin was about three times as strong as carbolic acid.
 A B C D
3. “Wonderful, but penicillin could never have discovered in a lab like this.
 A B C D
4. Fleming himself regarded this the most important result of his work.
 A B C D
5. “Today the sight of this parchment is odious to me, and I felt offended at seeing my name.
 A B C D
6. Having offered himself as a soldier where now he was refused on the score off physical incapacity.
 A B C D
7. Obedience he had secured and honour had granted him but only now came love.
 A B C D
8. She had a clever brain than his and he could not confute her ideas even if and when he disagreed with them.
 A B C D
9. “Chips, dear I’d let them off if I was you. After all, it’s nothing very serious.
 A B C D
10. “You know, Chips having all these hundred of boys cooped up here is really an unnatural arrangement.
 A B C D
11. (a) He had for some reason been afflicted from an acute desire to depreciate himself and all his
 (b) He had for some reason been afflicted with an acute desire to depreciate himself and all his
 (c) He had for some reason been afflicted of an acute desire to depreciate himself and all his
 (d) He had for some reason been afflicted on an acute desire to depreciate himself and all his
12. (a) The one thing he had always had a sense of humour, blossomed in a sudden richness to which his
 (b) The one thing he had always had a sense of humour, blossomed into a sudden richness to which his
 (c) The one thing he had always had a sense of humour, blossomed with a sudden richness to which his
 (d) The one thing he had always had a sense of humour, blossomed on a sudden richness to which his
13. (a) They had died in the same day, the mother and the child just born; on April 1st 1898.
 (b) They had died at the same day, the mother and the child just born; on April 1st 1898.
 (c) They had died on the same day, the mother and the child just born; on April 1st 1898.
 (d) They had died of the same day, the mother and the child just born; on April 1st 1898.

14. (a) You will all be deeply grieved to hear that His Majesty King Edward the Seventh died this morning.
 (b) You will all be deeply grieved of hear that His Majesty King Edward the Seventh died this morning.
 (c) You will all be deeply grieved with hear that His Majesty King Edward the Seventh died this morning.
 (d) You will all be deeply grieved at hear that His Majesty King Edward the Seventh died this morning.
15. (a) Next morning it was noised around the School that Grayson's father had sailed on the Titanic.
 (b) Next morning it was noised around the School that Grayson's father had sailed in the Titanic.
 (c) Next morning it was noised around the School that Grayson's father had sailed at the Titanic.
 (d) Next morning it was noised around the School that Grayson's father had sailed from the Titanic.

16. (a) Chips had never bothered to beware of him; he was not attracted with the man, but he served Him
 (b) Chips had never bothered to beware of him; he was not attracted by the man, but he served him
 (c) Chips had never bothered to beware of him; he was not attracted to the man, but he served him
 (d) Chips had never bothered to beware of him; he was not attracted of the man, but he served him
17. (a) And suddenly, on a torrent of thoughts too pressing to be put into words, Chips made answer to
 (b) And suddenly, at a torrent of thoughts too pressing to be put into words, Chips made answer to
 (c) And suddenly, to a torrent of thoughts too pressing to be put into words, Chips made answer to
 (d) And suddenly, in a torrent of thoughts too pressing to be put into words, Chips made answer to
18. (a) So he stayed on at Brookfield, having as little to do with Ralston as possible.
 (b) So he stayed on at Brookfield, having as little to do to Ralston as possible.
 (c) So he stayed on at Brookfield, having as little to do on Ralston as possible.
 (d) So he stayed on at Brookfield, having as little to do by Ralston as possible.
19. (a) He felt that it would not be fair to hang in if he could not decently do his Job.
 (b) He felt that it would not be fair to hang to if he could not decently do his Job.
 (c) He felt that it would not be fair to hang on if he could not decently do his Job.
 (d) He felt that it would not be fair to hang after if he could not decently do his Job.
20. (a) He could visit the school whenever he wanted, and could still, on a sense remain a part of it.
 (b) He could visit the school whenever he wanted, and could still, at a sense remain a part of it.
 (c) He could visit the school whenever he wanted, and could still, of a sense remain a part of it.
 (d) He could visit the school whenever he wanted, and could still, in a sense remain a part of it.

AL-NOOR CENTRE OF EDUCATION

Grand test # 4 (For ECAT)

Roll No.

1. When you are getting on in years (but not ill, of course), you got very sleepy at times.
 A B C D
2. He had there more than a decade, ever since he finally gave up his master ship.
 A B C D
3. Chips often thought, as he sat on the fire at Mrs. Wickett's.
 A B C D

4. You there on the fifth row-you with the red hair what's your name?
A B C D
5. But if it had not been this sort of school it would probably not take Chips.
A B C D
6. And Chips also would be making his comments to Mrs. Wickett when she had entered his room.
A B C D
7. At fourteen he went to London, and for the next two years he studied at the Regent Street Polytechnic.
A B C D
8. By 1914 Lister's antiseptic method of surgery had been largely replaced by
A B C
what was called the aseptic method.
D
9. Each of the chemical antiseptics was more harmful to the leucocytes than to the germs.
A B C D
10. Experience were made with different chemicals, and one after another became fashionable and then gave way to the next.
A B C
D
11. (a) I have thousand of faces in my mind-the faces of boys.
 (b) I have thousand of faces on my mind-the faces of boys.
 (c) I have thousand of faces into my mind-the faces of boys.
 (d) I have thousand of faces with my mind-the faces of boys.
12. (a) August, 1913. Chips went to Wiesbaden, where he lodged at the home of the German master
 (b) August, 1913. Chips went to Wiesbaden, where he lodged on the home of the German master
 (c) August, 1913. Chips went to Wiesbaden, where he lodged in the home of the German master
 (d) August, 1913. Chips went to Wiesbaden, where he lodged by the home of the German master
13. (a) Chips, questioned as he watched the first trial games off the season, gave quite a cheery answer.
 (b) Chips, questioned as he watched the first trial games of the season, gave quite a cheery answer.
 (c) Chips, questioned as he watched the first trial games by the season, gave quite a cheery answer.
 (d) Chips, questioned as he watched the first trial games at the season, gave quite a cheery answer.
14. (a) They are only names for him, he doesn't see their faces as I.
 (b) They are only names by him, he doesn't see their faces as I.
 (c) They are only names to him, he doesn't see their faces as I.
 (d) They are only names with him, he doesn't see their faces as I.
15. (a) Towards the close of that catastrophic July, Chatteries talked with Chips one afternoon at Mrs. Wickett's
 (b) Towards the close of that catastrophic July, Chatteries talked to Chips one afternoon at Mrs. Wickett's
 (c) Towards the close of that catastrophic July, Chatteries talked for Chips one afternoon at Mrs. Wickett's
 (d) Towards the close of that catastrophic July, Chatteries talked on Chips one afternoon at Mrs. Wickett's

16. (a) There was a mysterious kind of rissole that began to appear on the school menus on Monday.
 (b) There was a mysterious kind of rissole that began to appear in the school menus on Monday.
 (c) There was a mysterious kind of rissole that began to appear at the school menus on Monday.
 (d) There was a mysterious kind of rissole that began to appear over the school menus on Monday.
17. (a) In Sundays in chapel it was he who now read out the tragic list.
 (b) On Sundays in chapel it was he who now read out the tragic list.
 (c) At Sundays in chapel it was he who now read out the tragic list.
 (d) By Sundays in chapel it was he who now read out the tragic list.

18. (a) Does that mean he was fighting for the Germans?
 (b) Does that mean he was fighting of the Germans?
 (c) Does that mean he was fighting in the Germans?
 (d) Does that mean he was fighting on the Germans?
19. (a) When Chips entered into the midst of the uproar there was an instant hush.
 (b) When Chips entered in the midst of the uproar there was an instant hush.
 (c) When Chips entered the midst of the uproar there was an instant hush.
 (d) When Chips entered on the midst of the uproar there was an instant hush.
20. (a) The next day he was on bed with bronchitis.
 (b) The next day he was at bed with bronchitis.
 (c) The next day he was over bed with bronchitis.
 (d) The next day he was in bed with bronchitis.

AL-NOOR CENTRE OF EDUCATION

Grand test # 5 (For ECAT)

Roll No.

1. I once thrashed him - umph-for climbing on the gymnasium roof-to get a ball out of the gutter.
 A B C D
2. He had no worries; his pension was adequate, and there was a little money saved up beside.
 A B C D
3. He was not despite of his long years of assiduous teaching, a very profound classical scholar.
 A B C D
4. So there he lived at Mrs. Wickett's with quite enjoyments of reading and talking and remembering.
 A B C D
5. There came to him stirred with the warmth of the fire and the gentle aroma of tea, a thousand tangled recollections of old times.
 A B C
 D
6. During summer vacation he went up to at the Lake District with Rowdwn.
 A B C D
7. The discovery of lysozyme did not bring Fleming popular fame, but it raises his position in the world of science.
 A B C
 D
8. (a) The post-war decade swept through with a clatter off change and maladjustments.
 (b) The post-war decade swept through with a clatter with change and maladjustments.
 (c) The post-war decade swept through with a clatter of change and maladjustments.
 (d) The post-war decade swept through with a clatter at change and maladjustments.
9. (a) One of the new masters, from Oxford, even let the Sixth call him by his Christian name.
 (b) One of the new masters, from Oxford, even let the Sixth call him for his Christian name.
 (c) One of the new masters, from Oxford, even let the Sixth call him on his Christian name.

- (d) One of the new masters, from Oxford, even let the Sixth call him in his Christian name.
10. (a) Chips began his usual ritualistic of tea from the different caddies.
(b) Chips began his usual ritualistic of tea at the different caddies.
(c) Chips began his usual ritualistic of tea in the different caddies.
(d) Chips began his usual ritualistic of tea on the different caddies.
11. (a) Chips sat for the fire again, with those words echoing along the corridors of his mind.
(b) Chips sat against the fire again, with those words echoing along the corridors of his mind.
(c) Chips sat over the fire again, with those words echoing along the corridors of his mind.
(d) Chips sat by the fire again, with those words echoing along the corridors of his mind.
-
-
- Prepared by Prof: Arif Hameed M.A (English) Postgraduate Diploma in (ELT) Grand test → Page # 1
12. (a) He remembered that on the eve of his wedding day Kathie had used that same phrase.
(b) He remembered that in the eve of his wedding day Kathie had used that same phrase.
(c) He remembered that at the eve of his wedding day Kathie had used that same phrase.
(d) He remembered that by the eve of his wedding day Kathie had used that same phrase.
13. (a) Suddenly the tears began to roll up his cheeks.
(b) Suddenly the tears began to roll on his cheeks.
(c) Suddenly the tears began to roll in his cheeks.
(d) Suddenly the tears began to roll down his cheeks.
14. (a) Mr Chips was ultimately looked at as an institution a Brookfield.
(b) Mr Chips was ultimately looked upon as an institution a Brookfield.
(c) Mr Chips was ultimately looked on as an institution a Brookfield.
(d) Mr Chips was ultimately looked in as an institution a Brookfield.
15. (a) Its grounds were also used for training purposes.
(b) Its grounds were also used by training purposes.
(c) Its grounds were also used on training purposes.
(d) Its grounds were also used at training purposes.
16. (a) She attended on him during his illness and in spite of the fact that she had very advance ideas For Chips,
(b) She attended at him during his illness and in spite of the fact that she had very advance ideas for Chips,
(c) She attended him during his illness and in spite of the fact that she had very advance ideas for Chips,
(d) She attended for him during his illness and in spite of the fact that she had very advance ideas for Chips,
17. (a) At that final end-of-term dinner, on July 1913, Chips received his farewell presentations and make a speech.
(b) At that final end-of-term dinner, by July 1913, Chips received his farewell presentations and make a speech.
(c) At that final end-of-term dinner, at July 1913, Chips received his farewell presentations and make a speech.
(d) At that final end-of-term dinner, in July 1913, Chips received his farewell presentations and make a speech.
18. (a) He felt a great deal stronger and fitter after his holiday, and almost wished for he has not retired.
(b) He felt a great deal stronger and fitter after his holiday, and almost wished he has not retired.
(c) He felt a great deal stronger and fitter after his holiday, and almost wished against he has not retired.

- (d) He felt a great deal stronger and fitter after his holiday, and almost wished on he has not retired.

AL-NOOR CENTRE OF EDUCATION

Grand test # 6 (For ECAT)

Roll No.

1. One day, climbing on Great Gable, he noticed a girl waving excitedly from a dangerous looking ledge.
A B C D
2. Her name was Katherine Bridge; she was twenty-five-young enough to be Chips daughter.
A B C D
3. She read and admired Ibsen; she believed that women ought to be admit to the Universities.
A B C D
4. She had always thought that middle-aged men who read "The Times" and disapproved of modernity was terrible bores.
A B C
D
5. With in a week they were over heels in love; before Chips could walk without a stick,
A B C
they considered themselves as engaged.
D
6. So clearly it lingered, that time of dizzy happiness, those evening strolls on the waterside.
A B C D
7. "Wonderful, but penicillin could never have been discovered in a lab like this.
A B C D
8. Fleming himself regarded this as the most important result of his work.
A B C D
9. "Today the sight of this parchment is odious to me, and I feel offended, at seeing my name.
A B C D
10. Having offered himself as a soldier where now he was refused on the score of physical incapacity.
A B C D
11. (a) Eight dollars a week or a million dollars a year how different are they?
(b) Eight dollars a week or a million dollars a year – how different are they?
(c) Eight dollars a week or a million dollars a year – how different are they
(d) Eight Dollars a week or a million dollars a year – how different are they?
12. (a) And then she jumped up and cried, "Oh, oh!"
(b) And then she jumped up and cried, "Oh, oh!"
(c) And then she jumped up and cried, "Oh, oh!"
(d) And then she jumped up and cried, "Oh, oh!"
13. (a) The Magi, as you know, were wise men – wonderful wise men – who brought gifts to the newborn Christ – child.
(b) The Magi, as you know, were wise men – wonderful wise men – who brought gifts to the newborn Christ – child.
(c) The Magi, as you know, were wise men – wonderful wise men – who brought gifts to the newborn Christ – child.
(d) The Magi, as you know, were wise men – wonderful wise men – who brought gifts to the newborn Christ – child.
14. (a) Good evening, sir, "he said, "Can I help you, sir?
(b) Good evening, sir, "he said, "Can I help you, sir?
(c) Good evening, sir, "he said, "Can I help you, sir?
(d) Good evening, sir, "he said, "Can I help you, sir?
15. (a) "Oh, sorry, "he exclaimed and bending down picked it up.

- (b) “Oh, sorry, “he exclaimed and bending down picked it up.
 (c) “Oh, sorry, “he exclaimed and bending down picked it up.
 (d) “Oh, sorry, “he exclaimed and bending down picked it up.

16. It fail to understand why he deliberately absented from the meeting. No error.
 A B C D
17. Sometime even the word cannot describe about the beauty of the scene. No error.
 A B C D
18. Our has always been a multi-lingual country and people have always found their own strategies. No error.
 A B C D
19. Several hundred volunteers were detained of whom many were remanded in to judicial custody. No error.
 A B C D
20. We / returned back to the guest house impressed with what we had seen. No error.
 A B C D
21. The older one gets the more foolish and more wiser one becomes. No error.
 A B C D
22. What makes matters worse is that many a times the public address is not clearly audible. No error.
 A B C D
23. Civil servants with a technical background are as good as if not better than those with humanities background. No error.
 A B C D
24. There was a time when the universities took pride in the fact that its examination were held in time. No error.
 A B C D
25. The two friends walked beside each other in silence. No error.
 A B C D
26. It was so lovely weather that we spent the whole day in the garden. No error.
 A B C D
27. He suggested us that we should try to improve our condition / by beginning to work hard. No error.
 A B C D
28. A man jumped in the river in a state of depression. No error.
 A B C D
29. He said he was an employed of the gas company and has come to inspect the gas connection. No error.
 A B C D
30. Over three hundred farmers marched through the capital to protest against the new tax. No error.
 A B C D